Petersbourg, Auguſt 22.

THE Prince of Heſſe Hombourg ſet out Yeſterday to take upon him the Command of the Army on the Side of Narva.

Vienna, Sept. 9, N. S. On the 5th Inſtant Count Podaſtzky, one of her Hungarian Majeſty's Privy Councellors, and Captain of the Empreſs Dowager Amelia's Halberdin Guard, died here in the 63d Year of his Age. This Morning three Companies of Moleck's Regiment of Foot paſſed through this City on their Way to Bohemia. And the Raiſing of Recruits for the Auſtrian Regiments goes on in this Neighbourhood with great Succeſs.

Florence, Sept. 9. We are informed by Letters from Rome, that Application has been a ſecond Time made to that Court, on the Part of the King of the Two Sicilies, for Leave to erect Magazines in the Eccleſiaſtical State; but the Court of Rome being reſolved to contribute all in its Power towards maintaining the Peace and Tranquility of Italy, had abſolutely refuſed to give its Conſent. Count Wilſeck, who has been appointed General of the Auſtrian Troops in Tuſcany, in the Room of the late General Wachtendonck, ſet out from hence a few Days ago for Leghorn, in order to take upon him the Command of thoſe Troops.

Breſlau, Sept. 9, N. S. A great Number of ſick Men are coming from the Pruſſian Camp, and are to be quartered in the Suburbs of this City. The Auſtrian Huſſars are frequently maroding in this Neighbourhood, which keep us in continual Alarms. A large Detachment of them attacked this Morning the Pruſſian Picquet Guard; upon which the Dragoons and Uhlaus quartered on that ſide immediately went to ſupport that Guard. The Centinels at the Gates of the Town were doubled; the Ramparts lined with Soldiers and Gunners; and ſeveral Detachments of Foot advanced towards the Enemy; who having in the mean time skirmiſhed with the Pruſſian Cavalry, in which ſeveral were killed and wounded on both ſides, retired to a Wood near the Village of Schweinern. At Noon the Garriſon began to quit the Ramparts, and as the Detachments are returning, we believe all is over.

Breſlau, Sept. 13, N. S. The Pruſſian Army has been for two or three Days in Motion, during which there happened a pretty warm Action between the Pruſſian Rear Guard and that of the Auſtrians near Reichenback, in which the latter had the Diſadvantage. Prince Leopold of Anholt was dangerouſly wounded on the Side of the Pruſſians. The Pruſſian Army has taken its Route towards Neiſs, in the Neighbourhood of which Place it is ſuppoſed the firſt Column arrived on Friday laſt. His Pruſſian Majeſty has confirmed the Magiſtrates of Breſlau in their reſpective Offices.

Copenhagen, Sept. 16, N. S. Letters from Stockholm mention, that the Diet was broke up; and M. Palmſtierne returned hither on the 14th with the Title of Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the King of Sweden to this Court.
